PURPOSE

Mitchell College founded by Concord Presbytery is dedicated to the Christian education of youth. The ideals of academic integrity and religious influence have been an essential part of the college tradition for almost a century. Mitchell believes it can best fulfill these functions today by making itself as much as possible a community of learners, both teachers and students, who are committed to faith in God as revealed in Jesus Christ. Within this setting Mitchell College encourages every one of its members to share in the important tasks of academic life. To this end the whole educational program, with its preparation for advanced academic work, specific vocational training, and informal student activities, strives to cultivate in all Mitchell College students a growing sense of personal responsibility, civic responsibility, and vocational responsibility.

HISTORY

Mitchell College was founded in 1856, and thereby enjoys the prestige of being one of North Carolina's oldest junior institutions.

Owned and controlled by Concord Presbytery, which is comprised of 70 churches in Western North Carolina, Mitchell College is regulated by a Board of Trustees elected by the church.

In the fall of 1852, Concord Presbytery resolved to establish a female seminary in Western North Carolina. This enterprise, soon enlisted in its behalf support from the church, as well as a suitable amount of cash subscriptions toward the ultimate erection of Concord Female Seminary, the first name given to Mitchell College.

Granted a charter in July 1853, the Presbytery arranged for work on the main building to be begun the next year. When nearly completed it was practically destroyed as a result of a severe electrical storm and accompanying winds. Work of restoration was initiated immediately and the building had its formal opening as a private school September 15, 1856.

After the Civil War, the college, failing as a financial enterprise, was bought by R. F. Simonton of Statesville and for the next 23 years was called Simonton Female College.

The college won its first substantial success from 1875 to 1883 under the guidance of Mrs. Elisha Mitchell Grant and her sister, Miss Margaret Elliott Mitchell.

When Mrs. Grant died, Mrs. Fannie Everett Walton assumed the responsibilities of president and served for 11 years. After her retirement in 1896, the Reverend Dr. J. B. Shearer purchased the property and changed the name of the school to Statesville Female College.

When Dr. John A. Scott became president in 1900, Dr. Shearer deeded the property to Concord Presbytery. In 1907, through the generosity of W. F. Hall and other friends, an addition was made to the original building so that today Shearer Music Hall stands as a monument to Dr. J. B. Shearer and its name a reminder of the people's appreciation.

In 1915, that is, in the sixty-first year of the life of the college, Concord Presbytery, urged by the alumnae and approved by the trustees, changed the name of the institution to Mitchell College. The name was given to honor Mrs. Elisha Mitchell Grant and Miss Margaret Elliott Mitchell, daughters of Dr. Elisha Mitchell, scientist, educator, and Christian gentleman.

It was also during the administration of Dr. Scott that a Knabe grand, six upright pianos, a library, society halls, and an auditorium were secured and the college debt was reduced from $6000 to a nominal sum.

Many of the college's most notable improvements were recorded during the administration of Mrs. W. B. Ramsay, who served 14 years. The enrollment of Mitchell reached the highest attainment in 12 years previous to that time and a campaign for public donations was conducted for campus improvements and a new gymnasium. Mrs. Ramsay retired in 1943.

Under the leadership of the Rev. Mr. R. S. Arrowood, Mitchell College continued to go forward during 1943-1944. At the end of that time, Mr. Arrowood became Treasurer of Presbyterian Orphans' Home, Barium Springs, North Carolina.

During the administration of Miss Frances Stribling from 1944 to 1947, a considerable amount of physical equipment was added to the plant. Extensive painting in the interior of the main building was completed, the kitchen was remodeled, a lounge for the boys was secured, and funds for renovating the gymnasium were donated. Also, the Board of Trustees was enlarged to include more members from the Statesville community and plans for further development and expansion of the college were made.

Since June 1947 Mitchell College, under the guidance of Mr. John Montgomery, has continued to go forward in an excellent way. Improvements have been made in the buildings and grounds, a new library building has been constructed, the number of students has increased, and the curriculum and general program of the college have been expanded.

LOCATION AND CLIMATE

Located in Statesville, a city of about 20,000 population, Mitchell College is easily accessible from all parts of North Carolina by both train and bus service.

The campus is at the west end of Broad Street, one of the principal streets of the city, and conveniently near the churches, shopping district, post office, and public library. Statesville is 110 miles from Asheville, 43 miles from Charlotte, 50 miles from Winston-Salem, and 27 miles from Salisbury.

Statesville is in the healthful Piedmont section at the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains and has a delightfully mild climate throughout the year. The altitude is 960 feet above sea level.

BUILDINGS

The main building is a three-storied structure of stuccoed brick, ornamented by a lofty portico with six massive columns. The first floor contains the laboratories, some of the classrooms, kitchen, dining room, music studios, practice rooms, and the auditorium. The auditorium is an attractive room with a seating capacity of five hundred and is equipped with a pipe organ and a concert grand piano. On the second floor are the parlors, offices, and additional classrooms. Dormitory rooms for girls, the infirmary, and the girls' lounge are on the third floor. Student lounges and dormitory rooms are comfortably furnished.

The gymnasium is located on the north campus. The building is a wooden structure with a regulation basketball floor.

Two houses, adjoining the campus, are used as residences for the President and the Dean of Faculty. Part of the Dean's house serves as the boys' dormitory.

The Boys' Lounge, located between the gymnasium and the main building, was completed in the spring of 1947. Part of the building provides locker room facilities, and the rest of the space is divided into a lounge room and student store.

THE LIBRARY

At Mitchell College, the library is an important part of the educational program. The book collection consists of over 7,000 volumes chosen to meet the needs of the curriculum. Books are constantly being added to enrich the work of each department and to supply books for recreational reading. Students have direct access to the carefully selected current and back files of over fifty magazines and three newspapers to which the library subscribes, as well as to the entire stack collection. Students are encouraged to use books in the reading room seating sixty students where the reference books are directly accessible, and to borrow books for use outside the library.

Incoming students are given instruction to orient them in the use of the library. At all times, students receive personal assistance from the librarian. The college library facilities are supplemented by those of the Statesville Public Library and exchange privileges with larger libraries.

An incomplete or conditioned grade, unless raised to a passing grade, within six months, becomes a failure without the privilege of a re-examination. After the third week of the semester, a student dropping a course receives either a WP (withdrawn passing) or a WF (withdrawn failing).

An examination may be taken for the removal of a condition when requested by the student and approved by the instructor. A fee of $1.00 is charged for every re-examination.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The Department of Music offers courses the aim of which is to lay a foundation of musical knowledge of a three-fold nature:

I. To provide opportunities for the general student body to develop an understanding and appreciation of music as a part of the cultural foundation of a liberal education.

Three phases in this part of the program:

1. Instruction in Applied Music (piano, voice or organ) is available to all students of the college whether the student has studied previously or not. (Exception: Students desiring to study organ must demonstrate satisfactory skill in piano playing). This instruction is designed to fit the individual needs of each academic student who elects an Applied Music course. A sound technical basis is laid for the beginner and technical training is continued for those who have studied previously. The student may receive a maximum of four semester hours credit each year for this work.

2. A course in Music Appreciation is offered with the specific aim of developing in the student the ability to listen intelligently to music of all periods. No prerequisite is required other than the desire on the part of the student to learn about the basic materials of music for the purpose of enriching his own enjoyment and understanding of the art of music. This course fills the Fine Arts requirements of any liberal arts senior college. It offers four hours credit for the year with the possibility of an extra two hours credit being earned by the student writing a research paper each semester.

3. Opportunity is given to all college students to audition for membership in the Mitchell College Choir. The choir offers extensive training in choral technique, interpretation and a capella singing. Concerts are given in schools and churches of Statesville and other communities of North Carolina. One hour credit per semester is given.

II. To provide a comprehensive foundation for those wishing to make music their profession, either as performers, teachers or church musicians.

The music courses at Mitchell College are specifically designed to prepare the student for eventual attainment of a Degree in Music. Graduates of the Music Department at Mitchell have pursued their studies in such fields as public school music, church music and studio teaching. The courses for Music Majors are planned with the idea of encouraging all graduates to complete their studies and receive Degrees in Music. To this end the schedules are set up to contain courses considered basic to all music students.

All Music Majors are required to appear regularly in the public recitals which the Music Department presents throughout the year. In addition, Music Majors are required to present a half or a full public recital at the end of their school year as a requisite to graduation.

Any student who fulfills the entrance requirements regarding high school credits and demonstrates sufficient musical talent and training will be acceptable for admission to the music department of Mitchell College. Beginning work in all branches of Applied Music is provided for those students not able to meet the regular entrance requirements.

III. To offer lessons in applied music to special students.

Opportunities are offered for a limited number of persons from Statesville and surrounding communities to study piano, voice or organ with instructors in the music department. Persons studying in this category are considered special students and are advised to secure any desired information through the Business Office. Reservations may be made in advance by writing to the Business Office. All fees are paid to the Office. These students do not need to meet any special entrance requirements and college credit is not ordinarily given for this work.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Equipment. The Department of Music prides itself on the equipment at its disposal. Shearer Auditorium, with a seating capacity of approximately 500, is available for all public programs of the Music Department. In the auditorium is a two-manual Estey organ and a concert grand piano. Excellent teaching studios are maintained and adequate practice rooms, equipped for piano or voice practice, are available.

Broadcasting Studio. A modern sound-proof studio, equipped with microphones and broadcasting equipment is a recent addition to the music department. In the studio a Webcor Tape Recorder and Magnavox Phonograph are maintained.

Library. A number of reference works and textbooks are at the disposal of the students in the department. Current music periodicals are also available.

Record Library. The college maintains a well-balanced collection of records representing the finest classical music from all ages.

Applied Music. "Applied Music" refers to the practical study of piano, organ or voice in private lessons. Private lessons in applied music are available to all college students of varying degrees of preparation, from beginners to advanced students.

Accrediting of Applied Music. The accrediting of applied music is on the basis of one semester hour for each half-hour private lesson a week and one hour of practice a day. Two lessons a week and two hours of practice a day earn two semester hours. Additional credit is given at the rate of one semester hour for each additional hour of practice a day.

Important Requirement. No credit for applied music will be given if the required number of lessons has not been taken.

Lessons Missed. In applied music, lessons missed by the student because of illness or excused absence will be made up provided that the instructor is notified before the time of the lesson appointment. Lessons missed because of the absence of the instructor will be made up. Lessons falling on college holidays will not be made up.

Student Recitals. Student recitals are given at various intervals during the college year. All students majoring in music are required to take part in these recitals when they are requested to do so.

Attendance at Recitals. Students majoring in music are required to attend all recitals and other musical performances presented on the campus.

Public Appearance. Students must consult the Director of the Music Department before arranging to sing or play in public.

Language. Students majoring in music are advised to take French as their modern language.

Withdrawals. The Department of Music reserves the right to ask any student who fails to make satisfactory progress, either by reason of deficient musical ability or neglect of duty, to withdraw.
